The last of the Frenchville for the year was given by the Frenchville club at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1217 Eleventh street, at 8 o'clock yesterday. The guests were members of the club and their friends. The evening was spent in playing cards and dancing. The Frenchville club is a social organization for the French people of the city.

Miss Allen's Dinner.
Miss Allen, of the Frenchville club, gave a dinner at her home, 1217 Eleventh street, at 1 o'clock yesterday. The guests were members of the club and their friends. The dinner was a very successful one and the guests enjoyed it very much.

In the afternoon.
In the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1217 Eleventh street, gave a dinner at their home. The guests were members of the Frenchville club and their friends. The dinner was a very successful one and the guests enjoyed it very much.

The wedding ceremony.
The wedding ceremony was held at 8 o'clock yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith, 1217 Eleventh street. The bride was Miss Alice Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith. The groom was Mr. John Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Smith.

Miss Elizabeth Beck.
Miss Elizabeth Beck was hostess to the members of the Frenchville club at a dinner at her home, 1217 Eleventh street, at 1 o'clock yesterday. The guests were members of the club and their friends. The dinner was a very successful one and the guests enjoyed it very much.

Hallowe'en Coffee.
The regular monthly coffee of the Ladies' Aid society of the Memorial Christian church was held in the form of a Hallowe'en coffee yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Graves, 1600 Twelfth avenue. About seventy-five persons were present and a neat sum was cleared. The rooms were decorated with vases of yellow chrysanthemums, and with paper black cats and other Hallowe'en decorations. A bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece in the dining room.

Hallowe'en Party at Parish House.
The Junior Girls' Friendly society of the Trinity Episcopal church enjoyed a Hallowe'en party last evening at the parish house. The young people arrived dressed as ghosts, witches and in other Hallowe'en costumes, and in other Hallowe'en games were played during the evening. Later Hallowe'en refreshments consisting of pumpkin pie, apples and popcorn balls were served.

Gold Maid Coffee.
The Woman's guild of the South Park Presbyterian church held its regular monthly coffee yesterday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Roy Marshall was chairman of the affair. The church was decorated with the Hallowe'en colors and emblems. A short business session was held in which it was reported that the sum of $110 which had been pledged on the building fund was paid. A short program was given consisting of vocal numbers by Mrs. Kennedy and a reading by Mrs. W. R. Manly. Pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee were served, and a nice sum was cleared.

Gives Hallowe'en Party.
Miss Florence Dolph of 1313 Third avenue was hostess to a number of friends at one of the pretty Hallowe'en parties of the season. Games were enjoyed, the prizes going to Miss Margaret Sunquist, Miss Hope Anderson and Miss Florence Gantner. There were piano and victrola music to make the evening a pleasant one, and Miss Elva Wilkins gave a vocal solo and Miss J. Hope Anderson a waltz dance. Refreshments, which further carried out the Hallowe'en idea, were served. George Pepping of Sherrard was an out-of-town guest.

Goes to Convention.
Mrs. Mary E. Morgan, general secretary of the Rock Island Welfare association, has gone to Jacksonville, to attend the state conference of Charities and Corporations. The convention will be held today, tomorrow and Sunday. Mrs. Morgan represents the local association. There will be delegates from various organizations located in cities in Illinois.

F. U. N. Club Entertained.
Mrs. Floyd Norton was hostess to the members of the F. U. N. club yesterday afternoon at her home, 2425 Eighth-and-a-half avenue. Hallowe'en decorations were used about the rooms. The ladies planned for a Christmas party to be given on Dec. 30.

Surprise Mrs. Gould.
The ladies of the Twin-city Benevolent society carried out a most pleasant surprise party last evening on Mrs. John Gould at her home, 713 Twenty-fifth street. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party for Mrs. Gould, who is to leave next week to make her home in Kansas City.

Held Special Meeting.
Barbara Fritchie tent No. 31, Daughters of Veterans, held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, to practice for inspection. No business of any importance was transacted.

Loyal Sons Entertained.
The Loyal Sons of the Second Christian church entertained last evening at a Hallowe'en party at the church, at which some one hundred fifty members of the congregation and friends of the organization were the guests. Various stunts suggestive of Hallowe'en were enjoyed, the chief one being an initiation stunt. Pumpkin pie, doughnuts, apples and coffee were served.

Courtesy for Visitors.
Mrs. Andrew Olson of 2608 Thirtieth avenue entertained a few friends yesterday afternoon as a courtesy for Mrs. H. A. Grove of Paonia, Colo., who is visiting in the city and for Mrs. Hilma Anderson of Detroit, Mich., who is also a visitor. The afternoon hours were spent with sociability and a two course lunch was served. The decorations were in the late fall flowers and victrola music was enjoyed.

C. W. B. M. With Mrs. Oliver.
The C. W. B. M. of the Second Christian church met yesterday with Mrs. W. B. Oliver, at 920 Fourteenth street. Seven members were present. After the regular business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. Mrs. A. B. Beck will be hostess at the next meeting on Nov. 25 at her home, 613 Thirteenth avenue, when Mrs. M. J. Hamerly will have charge of the program.

Hallowe'en Party at School.
Yesterday afternoon the St. Joseph Literary club whose members are freshmen of the St. Joseph school, enjoyed a Hallowe'en party in the club room at the school. The room was decorated in the Hallowe'en colors. Ghost stories, riddles and jokes and prophecies of the future of each member, were told and Hallowe'en games and stunts were enjoyed, prizes being awarded to Robert Cavanaugh, John Devine, Miss Eva Stombs, Miss Marie Sersig and Miss Eva Gillman. Refreshments were served after the games.

Miss Thieleke Entertained.
A very delightful Hallowe'en party was given Wednesday evening by Miss Evelyn Thieleke at her home on Eighth avenue. The guests came in costume and among the clever outfits were those of witches, clowns, ghosts, Japanese, gypsies, and a newsboy.

The evening was spent playing cards and prizes were given to the winners in the contest. The house was prettily decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns, leaves, orange and black crepe paper and pumpkins. Late in the evening a very appropriate Hallowe'en lunch was served.

Gives Ghost Party.
Miss Mary Carroll entertained a company of 18 girl friends at a Hallowe'en ghost party at her home, 1433 Eighth avenue, last evening. The rooms were elaborately decorated in Hallowe'en style. A lattice work covered with sunflowers had been formed in the bay window of the living room and in an archway and in the lattice work pumpkin heads containing lighted candles formed the only lights. Pumpkins heads containing candles were hung from the doorways and over the table in the dining room. The evening was spent with Hallowe'en games for which prizes were awarded and at 10 o'clock a luncheon was served in the dining room. Place cards, napkins, nut dishes and favors carried out the Hallowe'en idea as well as the luncheon. After the luncheon the guests enjoyed singing and dancing until a late hour.

Queen Esther Hallowe'en Party.
The Queen Esthers of the Gloria Dei United Presbyterian church enjoyed a Hallowe'en party last evening at the home of Miss Lillian Ludwig, 3910 Twelfth street. There were 12 members present, each masked. The rooms were decorated in black and gold and Hallowe'en games were played during the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fay Crosby, Miss Margaret Hummel, Miss Merle Goddard and Miss Lillian Ludwig. Later supper was served, the table being decorated in yellow and black. Music and dancing were enjoyed after the supper. The next meeting will be held Nov. 8 with Miss Florence Boland, 1912 Eleventh street.

Banquet Is Enjoyed.
Trio lodge members and their ladies enjoyed the dinner and dance last evening at the Masonic temple, which was one of the social events of the season. The banquet was served at 6:30 and the address of welcome was given by M. T. Stevens, past master of Trio lodge. White's orchestra furnished the music for the dance program which followed the splendid vaudeville performance. Rev. M. Chapman was an out of town guest. Much credit for the affair belongs to the committee, and it is hoped that the officers will see fit to sponsor another.

Entertain for Mrs. Tarpy.
Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Sanburg of 2121 1/2 Fourth avenue, entertained last evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. J. Tarpy. The home was decorated throughout with Hallowe'en suggestions. Mrs. George A. Wood, who was masked and dressed to represent Mike the Bellboy, received at the door, assisted by Mrs. R. A. Williams, who was dressed as the maid, Tillie from Sweden. Music and dancing was the entertainment of the evening. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Sanburg being assisted by Mrs. Neva Lawie. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Williams of St. Louis, Mrs. M. A. Williams of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Adams of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Arlington and Miss Cleo Roseland of Des Moines, Miss Dorothy Fairchild of Iowa City. At 10 o'clock Mrs. Tarpy was led to the dining room and presented with many beautiful presents, and birthday greetings were extended by Mrs. G. A. Wood.

Postnuptial for Mrs. Ashford.
The auxiliary to the Fred C. Shaffner unit held its regular meeting last evening in Memorial hall. After a short business session, a social time was enjoyed in the form of a Hallowe'en sociable. The affair was also a postnuptial for Mrs. Charlotte Ashford, formerly Mrs. Fenwick, whose marriage took place several weeks ago. Mrs. Ashford was presented with a half dozen silver spoons and a cut-glass dish by members of the auxiliary.

Club Dance Delightful Affair.
A delightful affair was the informal dinner-dance held in the form of a Hallowe'en party last evening at the Rock Island club. Some seventy-one couples were present. The rooms were artistically and appropriately decorated, carrying out the Hallowe'en idea. Dinner was served about 7 o'clock, and the after-dinner hours were passed gayly with dancing. The affair was in the form of a winter opening. The committee in charge of the arrangements included Bernard D. Connelly, Mrs. C. E. Sharpe, Mrs. H. G. Trent, Mrs. C. E. Shields and George Perrin.

Etude Club.
Mrs. J. Ross Lee entertained the Etude club at her home, 2411 1/2 Brady street, Davenport, yesterday afternoon. The program was in English and Scotch and was given as follows:
1. Jubla dance ..... Granger
2. (a) "My Laddie" ..... Thyer
(b) Pierrot ..... Hopkinson
3. Reading— "Lisbeth" ..... Kipling
4. (a) "Coming Through the Rye" ..... Leland

5. Piano—English Morris dance ..... Granger
6. Vocal (a) Bon Jour Ma Belle ..... Behnel
Vocal (b) Jerushy ..... Jessie Gayno
After the program tea was served. The next meeting will be held next Thursday, at the studio of Mrs. Alice Atwell, 121 1-3 East Second street, Davenport. Mrs. D. J. Hickey, Jr., will be hostess.

Mattingsly-Johnson.
The marriage of Miss Emily Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Johnson of 1017 Fourth street, to Paul D. Mattingsly of Moline, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mattingsly of McQuady, Ky., was quietly celebrated at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Lutheran church. Rev. Karl A. Nifegan, pastor of the First Swedish Lutheran church officiated.

Attending the young couple were Miss Nellie Wood as bridesmaid, and Arthur E. Johnson, brother of the bride, as best man. The bride wore a becoming suit of dark brown drapery with a hat to match and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Miss Wood's suit was dark blue with a hat to match, and she also wore pink roses. After the ceremony, a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother, covers being laid for 16. The table centerpiece was a bouquet of pink roses. Bouquets of pink roses and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the other rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Mattingsly left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at the home of the bride's mother, 1017 Fourth street. Mr. Mattingsly is a metal worker in the Silvis shops. The bride, until recently, was a stenographer for the Rock Island stove company.

Program for Coffee.
An interesting program has been arranged to be given tomorrow afternoon at the Hallowe'en coffee which the In-His-Name circle, King's Daughters, is sponsoring at the home of Mrs. Arvid Samuelson, 903 Twenty-third street. A feature of the affair will be a fortune telling stunt, which is expected to prove very popular. Friends of the circle and members of circles from the tri-cities are invited to call during the hours, from 2 to 6:30. Following is the program to be carried out:
Piano solo—Miss Oenone Apple.
Vocal solo—Miss Kathryn Dolly.
Harp solo—Miss Loretta Murphy.
Readings—Miss Gladys Bradley of Moline.
Vocal solo—Mrs. H. E. Vedder of Davenport, accompanied by Mrs. S. J. Buerlich, also of Davenport.
Piano solo—Miss Dorothy Deisenroth.

Weed-Murphy.
The marriage of Miss Josephine Murphy of Rock Island and Andrew E. Weed of Moline was quietly solemnized yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of the Second Congregational church. Mr. Rev. I. Walker officiated. There were no attendants. The bride couple left on a wedding trip. Mr. Weed is employed by the People's Power company.

Will Sponsor Hallowe'en Sociable.
A Hallowe'en sociable will be sponsored by the Centenary Methodist church ladies' aid society this evening at the Will Rich workshop, 1815 Thirteenth street. Hallowe'en games will be played, and the young people are urged to come in Hallowe'en costume. Coffee, pies and homemade candy will be on sale.

Entertains at Hallowe'en Party.
Mrs. S. Eugene Mattison entertained the members of the Golden Rule bible class of the First Methodist church at a Hallowe'en party last evening at her home, 1231 Twentieth street. Special guests were Mrs. J. C. Bodewig, and a number of young men, members of the church. Decorations carried out the Hallowe'en idea, and the evening was spent pleasantly with Hallowe'en games. A number of horrors was one of the features of the evening. At a late hour Hallowe'en refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of the affair, with Mrs. Mattison, consisted of Miss Florence L. Hill and Miss Wilma Vogt. Mr. Mattison is teacher of the class.
Hold Bakery Goods Sale.
Every variety of bakery goods will be on sale at the bakery which is being sponsored by the ladies' aid society of the First Methodist church tomorrow at the drug store. Those wishing to buy goods to be sold are asked to come to the store by 10 o'clock this morning.
